Dear Mr Price: As my friends have not heard from me for some time, I will try to write them a few lines. It is quite a task for me to write; my looks are white by the frosts of many winters; my eyes are getting dim; my hands are unsteady and my legs shaky. Yet when I look back over the years that are gone it does not seem possible that I am getting old. As I look back it seems but a short time since I was a school boy, and now I am one of your oldest subscribers—nearly to the century mark.

A Tribute

In loving memory of Samuel Bryson Moore who departed this life at his home in Edray, February 11, 1935, in his eighty-eighth year.

He was the youngest child of the late Isaac and Catherine Gilliland Moore. He was united in marriage to Mary Ann Sharp October 17, 1872, who preceded him in death just three months and a few days. To this union were born five children, Mrs. A. C. Barlow, Mrs. A. R. Gay, Mrs. A. O. Baxter, Mrs. Frank Baxter and Samuel Reid Moore.

This aged couple were permitted to live a number of years beyond their golden wedding—maintaining a home whose services were known and appreciated far and near in so many ways. He lost his father during the war of 1860, being left a mere boy. It was his lot to live at the place of his birth. Thus he saw his country wrought by desolation, to grow and blossom like the rose, thrust into depression again.

Of Mr. Moore's father's family there were three sisters—the late Mrs. J. B. Hannah, of Frost; Mrs. William He had often been heard to say that in his mind there was no music equal to the human voice.

Mr. Moore was not only closely associated with the growth of his country in private life, but in public life also. He was a great admirer of the Free School System, and served as president of the board of education for a number of years, with the late Henry Barlow and William Gibson as the other members of the board of Edray District. This board selected most of the locations of the school houses and a great many remain to this day. He also served as assessor of Pocahontas county and receiver of the court.

The deceased professed faith and united with the Methodist Church under the ministry of Rev. Mr. Neal in 1864, at Humlin Chapel church. He contributed faithful and efficient service to his church in every way.

Funeral services were conducted from his home church at Edray, by his pastor, Rev. Mr. Carder, assisted by Rev. O. N. Miles, of the Presbyterian Church. The text used was "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." Interment was made in the Moore cemetery at Edray.

"Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright for the end of that man is peace."
